Chambers College

Fall 2008 Course Offerings and Registration Information

Time	On Campus College Courses Wednesdays, September 3 to November 19 2008 Reformation Baptist Church 1300 Ninth Street, Greeley, Colorado
9:15	HI213 The History of the Puritans in England (3 cr) Steve Ong We will look at the Puritans' relationship to society in the church, education, and government. This survey will be supplemented with biographical readings and samples of their literature. (May be taken with London Study)
10:15	EN313 Puritan Literature and Fine Arts (3 cr) Teri Ong We will study the lives and literature of a variety of Puritan writers including Ames, Sibbes, Bunyan, Milton, Goodwin, Owen, and Baxter. We will also study Puritan Reformed thought in regard to the visual arts as applied to portraiture, illustration, and church architecture and decoration. (May be taken with London Study)
11:15	MU330 Hymn Arranging (3 cr) Teri Ong Use four-part hymns or choruses as the basis for writing variations for soloists or ensembles, vocal and instrumental.
1:00	CM205 Communication from a Christian Perspective (3 cr) Craig Schmidt This class will be student initiated research intended to equip each student with an understanding of effective communications from a Bible based-Christian perspective. Students will learn communication evaluation and delivery skills They will study communications models, and tools. The class will include practical life application intent on creating great communicators for Christ.
2:15	SC301 Biblical Foundations of Medicine (3 cr) Steve Ong Investigates Biblical principles for making medical decisions and life choices affecting health and well-being. Surveys both traditional and alternative medicine philosophies. This course can save thousands of dollars in medical expenses.	MU255 Advanced Strings Ensemble (1 cr) Teri Ong A study of classical and sacred repertoire for string chamber ensemble.
Vail Study Retreat Sept 10-13 (Wednesday to Saturday) Vail, CO
BT100 The Vail Leadership Retreat Dr. Doug Bookman, PhD, former professor Master's College, will be leading most of the study times. We will be studying the Passion week of Christ. For $150.00 you will experience the best of the spiritual and physical world for 4 days and three nights in a 5 star resort. This is a very reasonable price. This retreat is also open to mature high school students and students intending to co-enroll in the college. College students can receive one-three hours of college credit for an additional $40.00 per credit hour if they choose to additional reading assignments and submit a paper.

London Study Tour

This year's London tour course offerings include EN313 Puritan Literature and Art by Teri Ong and HI313 Puritans in Church and Society, taught by Steve Ong.

Chambers College credit is obtained by taking two, three hour courses. The other two hours' credit are gained on the trip by keeping a diary and writing a paper. You may travel to London without attending the courses, but there is no reduction in price for not taking the courses. Call for an application for the tour.

Chambers College Registration - Fall 2008

Student name:
Address:
City, State, Zip:
Home phone: Cell:
Email address:

Year (check one) ☐ Freshman ☐ Sophomore ☐ Junior ☐ Senior

Co-enrolled? ☐

The general service fee, tuition, books, and lab fees will be billed.

Course #	Course Title	Credit Hours